CRAB ORCHARD.

The ministers of the Church of God are carrying on a series of meetings at the court house.

Rev. Cokeley's regular appointment as pastor of the Baptist church was filled by Rev. Abernathy Sunday. He delivered a forcible sermon.

The new Christian church will be ready for service by the last of this month. On the first Sunday in February the first service will be held.

Miss Fetro, the new music teacher at the Graded School, seems to have won the hearts of all her pupils, as each praises her in the highest terms.

W. E. Perkins, after inquiring, says he wishes to thank his vast number of friends who have patronized him so liberally and wishes them a happy and prosperous year.

The young people had a grand party at the hospitable home of Mrs. Jennie Tatem, who threw open her house for their enjoyment. Each and all enjoyed the occasion immensely.

T. K. Watson, of Lancaster, visited the home of the Watsons Sunday. Mrs. Emma Farris, who has been ill for some time from a stroke of paralysis, has recovered sufficiently to partially attend to business. Mrs. Margaret Gormley, who for some time has been bedfast, is beginning to sit up and it is hoped that she will soon enjoy good health.

He Proves His Devotion.

A dentist received a call the other morning from a couple whom he soon had reason to believe were lovers. The girl had an aching tooth, and as they entered the young man said:

"Now darling the worst is over. Just take a seat and it will be out in a minute."

"Oh, I daren't!" she gasped.

"But I am afraid it will."

"It can't. I'd have one pulled in a minute if it ached."

"I don't believe it."

"Well, then, I'll have one pulled out just to show you that it doesn't hurt."

He took a seat, leaned back and opened his mouth, and the dentist seemed to be selecting a tooth to seize with his forceps when the girl protested.

"Hold on. The test is sufficient. He has proved his devotion. Move away, Harry, and I'll have it pulled."

She took the chair, had the tooth drawn without a groan and as she went out she was saying to the young man:

"Now I can believe you when you declare that you would die for me."

And yet every tooth in his head was false.—Tit-Bits.

The Grip.

"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by the Stanford Drug Co.

The editor of the Frankfort Journal, who was "bit" by the Lexington investment companies, says: "A preacher is on trial at Lexington for swindling by means of an investment company, and he states that it will take him three days to tell how it was done. If the plan of his company was like most of the others it oughtn't to take that long or more than a few words. The simple statement that the companies were organized to rob the unsuspecting and covetous and lived up to the object of their organization, would tell the tale."

A Jamaican Lady Speaks Highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mrs. Michael Hart, wife of the superintendent of Cart Service, at Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies Islands, says that she has for some years used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, croup and whooping cough and has found it very beneficial. She has implicit confidence in it and would not be without a bottle of it in her home. Sold by the Stanford Drug Co.

We can do without hammers, we can do without nails,

We can do without fences and do without rails—

We can do without boxes and barrels and bins,

But where is the woman that can do without pins?

Four people were killed in a freight collision on the Illinois Central near Bardwell.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. Joseph Dollarhyde is suing the town of Norton, Va., for $10,000. Her husband was killed by a policeman of that city on Christmas day.

The old home of former Congressman Vincent Boreing has been selected as the site for the new government building to be erected at London.

Oscar Bramlett, a Mercer county youth of 17, measures six feet nine inches and weighs 221 pounds. He wears a number 14 shoe and trousers 49 inches to the leg.

Major C. D. Thompson and the board of city councilmen of Harrodsburg have bought $4,000 of the city's electric light bonds for the city, reducing the debt for the light plant to $14,000.

Several large pieces of the battleship "Maine" passed through Danville en route to New York City. This material has been in the Havana harbor since the ship was blown up several years ago.

While endeavoring to separate two Negro inmates, who were fighting, Robert Gillen, keeper of the Madison county poor farm, was attacked by one of the contestants. Gillen shot him probably fatal.

Benjamin F. Potts is dead at his home at Lancaster after an illness of consumption. Mr. Potts was for years one of the best millers of Garrard county. He leaves a family of grown sons and daughters.

Suits have been filed by the Middlesboro Town and Land Company against 125 persons and firms in various parts of the country for the recovery of lots that were bought by these parties during the "Middlesboro boom" days. About $100,000 worth of property is involved.

Gov. Beckham granted a pardon to Wright Young, of Whitley county, an inmate of the State penitentiary, serving a sentence of 10 years upon conviction of manslaughter. Young had served 27 months. The pardon papers were carried to Frankfort by Judge Thomas Z. Morrow, of Somerset.

Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Helm left for Louisville, where they will be at home at 720 Fourth Street, says the Advocate. With their departure the W. L. Caldwell place on the Lebanon bike will, for the first time in 123 years, be occupied by others than direct descendants of the original owner of the place.

A. H. Hamlin bought of Jonas McKenzie his farm, known as the McClary farm, for $3,000. Mr. and Mrs. John McKenzie and Mrs. James L. White were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas McKenzie. McKenzie Brown, who has been associated with this office for the past year, has resigned his position and will launch into the journalistic field at Williamsburg.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

The judgment of the Pulaski circuit in a case of Pulaski county against the city of Somerset was affirmed both on original and cross appeal in the court of appeals. The city and county engaged in litigation as to which should bear the expense of treating small-pox patients during an epidemic in 1900. Both sued and the court dismissed both petitions. This left them jointly bearing the expense.

County Attorney W. J. Price and Commonwealth's Attorney Charles Hardin have been camping on the trail of a number of Louisville firms that have been guilty of violating the law in failing to have the word "Incorporated" appear on their printed matter, and have caused to be issued summons calling on these firms to appear in Danville and show cause why they should not be punished for such violation.—Advocate.

The Boyle County Herald, of Danville, with $10,000 capital stock, has been incorporated. The incorporators are John B. Stout, A. E. Hundley and W. Owen McIntyre. They will do a general newspaper and printing business. Also Clay's Ferry Bridge Co., of Madison county, with $4,800 capital stock. The incorporators are T. J. Smith and W. S. Moberly, of Richmond, and James Eskine, of Cleveland, Fayette county.

To Policeman Bob Colyer belongs the credit of landing the first bootlegger. John Coomer, a notorious violator, just from the prison of Monticello for bootlegging during the fair, last September, arrived in the city Wednesday and, it is alleged, began playing his vocation. Colyer soon had him in custody with dead shot cases to insure his conviction. A supply of liquor was found hidden away at the electric light plant.—Somerset Journal.

Mrs. Eva Asbell, of Jasper, Ind., has sued two saloon keepers of her town for $10,000. She alleges that two drunken men caused her horse to run away and permanently injure her.

William S. Taylor, the Kentucky fugitive living in Indiana, has been warned of an alleged Socialist attempt to kidnap him for a reward of $1,000, said to have been offered by a Socialist newspaper published in Indianapolis. Six trainmen formed a human chain and rescued from the water of a swollen Indiana Creek Arley Fields and two women who had been thrown into the water by the overturning of a buggy. By an agreement reached Saturday by the engineers and managers of all railroads west of Chicago to the Pacific, salaries will be increased to an aggregate of between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000 yearly and between 15,000 and 20,000 men will be affected. The agreement reached was a compromise, the employees withdrawing their demand, among others, for an eight-hour day.

The disappearance of John Smith from Jackson has caused no alarm to the attorneys for the prosecution in the Hargis case, who think they will be able to find him when they need him. Smith said before leaving Jackson that threats had been made against him and he did not think it safe to remain in town. According to reports prevalent in Breathitt more surprises are coming for the defense in the Hargis case and some of Hargis' former staunch friends are deserting him.

In spite of warnings that he would be killed if he appeared on the streets of Jackson, A. Floyd Byrd, who is prosecuting James Hargis and the other Breathitt county feud leaders, went to the courthouse and took his accustomed place. On account of the ending of the special term of court it will not be possible to try Hargis for several weeks. Should the trial take place in Jackson, under similar conditions existing during the last few days, troops will be sent to protect the court.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now 11 years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes G. L. Penny.

The financial statement of Paducah for 1906 shows a deficit of $44,045.36, the largest in years. The city has been under control of Republican boards, and the appropriation for each department were ignored and money spent carelessly, says a dispatch from that place.

The Right Name.

Dangers of a Cold and How to Avoid Them.

More fatalities have their origin in or result from a cold than from any other cause. This fact alone should make people more careful as there is no danger whatever from a cold when it is properly treated in the beginning.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recognized as the most prompt and effectual medicine in use for this disease. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Sold by the Stanford Drug Co.

Blue Grass Farm for Sale!

I wish to sell my farm, 8½ miles West of Hustonville, 1 mile from pine and Carpenter's Station, consisting of 188 acres of rich, blue grass, hemp to take in all in grass. The farm can be equally divided to percentage so as to have a good dwelling on each piece; also necessary outbuildings. The farm lays almost in a square, only one angle in lines. There are three streams, 1 good tobacco barn, 2 stables, 1 tenant house, good water in every field; six lasting springs, with 3 streams running through whole track.
